7-Pin to HDTV/Component Cable

VisionTek Part# 900660

This high quality cable features a 7-pin S-Video connector on one end and three RCA jacks on the other end.

Connect your graphics card or laptop to an HDTV!

This high quality cable features a 7-pin S-Video connector on one end and three RCA jacks on the other end. The RCA jacks are molded red, green and blue and are only for component video (not composite video and audio). If your graphics card has a 7-pin TV-out connector, this is the solution for gaming on a big high definition screen! Great for laptop computers that have an S-Video output as well… connect your machine to a TV, HDTV, DVD player, or projector.

Warranty: 1 Year
